This set of relatively easy partimenti follows the Rules section of Insanguine's manuscript. Because these sixteen partimenti ended with the instruction "Here Follow the Partimenti," we can assume that Insanguine thought of these easier studies as somewhat below the level of difficulty of "real" partimenti. More challenging studies can be found by returning to the index and selecting Harder Partimenti or the still more difficult Partimento Fugues.

Beginning with partimento No. 2, Insanguine (or a copiest) used "literal" figures. That is, the order of numbers from top to bottom may match the intended placement of tones from high to low. Beginners often find this helpful. Experienced players find it annoying because more information is provided than what they need.

The musical score consists of three staves in bass clef, key of D major (one sharp), and common time. The first staff contains a continuous eighth-note melody. The second staff begins with a whole rest, followed by eighth-note patterns and a quarter note with a sharp accidental. The third staff continues the eighth-note melody, includes a triplet of eighth notes, and ends with a half note and a quarter rest. Fingerings (4, 5, 4, 6, 5, 3, 5, 4) and accidentals (sharps) are indicated above specific notes.
