

O Gladsome Light

+Athenogenes c. 305AD

Φως Τλαριον

after L Bourgeois, arr: JR

A T
B

O Glad-some Light, O grace of God the Fa - ther's face.
Now, ere day fa - deth quite we see the eve - ning light.

8

Th'e - ter - nal splen-dour wea - ring; Ce - les - tial, ho - ly, blest,
Our won - ted hymn out - pou - ring; Fa - ther of might unk - nown,

13

Our sa - viour Je - sus Christ, Joy - ful in thine ap -
Thee, his in - car - nate Son, And Ho - ly Ghost a dor
Joy - ful in thine, joy - ful
And Ho - ly Ghost, and - Ho -

17

pear - ing. A - men.
thine ap - pear - ing. A - men.
Ghost a - dor

To thee of right belongs,
All praise of holy songs.
O Son of God, Lifegiver;
Thee, therefore, O Most High,
The world doth glorify,
And shall exalt for ever.

Sherborne, June 2017.